

2009

Completed projects

Royal Botanic Gardens Stage 2 Bulk Earthworks, Australian Garden, Cranbourne.

Site Issues

- Excessive groundwater.
- Prevention of damage to existing flora.
- Protection of bandicoots.
- Tree protection
- High usage public space in existing garden space.

Works Included

- Construction of temporary access tracks for construction purposes.
- Disposal of 60000 m³ material off site.
- Cut to fill of 25000m³ material on site, transport to northern wetland stockpile and compacted as specified.
- Controlled fill for garden beds.
- Subgrade preparation.
- Construction of south eastern access tracks.
- Construction of gabion baskets.
- Wetlands and associated structure construction.

Client:

Royal Botanic Gardens,
Cranbourne

Client Representative:

James Robinson, RBG

Project Designer:

Irwin Consulting

Superintendent:

Doug Kidner, RBG

Contract Sum: $0.7M

